

Not letting NJ keep the don not call list is a mistake. We are finally starting to get some peace at home as a result of the list. To repeal the law would be a step backwards.